Seventh-day Adventist Church
Members of the Appomattox Seventh-day Adventist Church are laying plans this week for local participation at the annual camp - meeting beginning at New Market, Va., Thursday night, June 18 at 7:30.

Pastor William E. Carpenter was back with us last Saturday, and had charge of the 11 o'clock worship service as usual, but for the next two Sabbaths laymen of the church will be in charge at the regular hours.

A number of members will attend camp-meeting this week end some will be there the entire 10-days. Top officials will have charge of the morning services the two Sabbaths, June 20 and 27.

This is an occasion looked forward to each year by the members of the Potomac Conference when they will re - emphasize their spiritual needs as they worship and fellowship with those of other churches of like faith "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more as we see the day (the day of the Lord) approaching.' Heb. 10:24,25.

Local Troop 546 Goes Camping

Appomattox Boy Scout Troop 546 under the leadership of Trooper R. G. Netherland camped at Conner's Lake from Thursday to Saturday, June 11-13. Six teen scouts camped out, cooking their own food and learning tree identification, location of edible plants and the laying of a course with a compass.

Scouts attending were Bill Watson, John Watson, Bobby Watson, Charlton Phillips, Charles Phillips, Ricky Galliher and a guest, S. T. Markham, of Amherst.

Also, Don Conner, Jesse Arthurs, Kenneth Hawkins, Paul Harvey, John Williams, David Schrock, Steve Wilson, Tommy Terry, James Goin, and Bobby Moon. Other troop members who did not attend: David Scruggs, Jerry Smelcer, and Charlie Smelcer.

Forestry Tour Wed., June 24

A tour of the Roanoke Creek Watershed will begin at the Charlotte Court House Division of Forestry Office on Wednesday June 24, at 1 o'clock, according to Joel Artman, county forester for Appomattox.

Timber growers of Appomattox, county officials, and all other interested persons are invited to go on the tour which will include a look at examples of thinning, tractor - mounted mist blowing, pre-commercial thinning, plantings, and aerial spraying.

Homer Smith, Forester of Roanoke County Watershed, will be in charge. The tour will conclude with a Brunswick Stew supper at the home of the Honorable Jack Daniels, at Charlotte Court House. For further information, contact Joel A. Artman, Va. Div. of Forestry, Farmville, Va.

Flier Completes Aerial Spraying

An aerial "bombardment" of woodland in Appomattox and Charlotte county has been completed, according to Forester Jool A. Artman.

Seven areas of woodland have been sprayed by Compton's Flying Service, South Boston, Va. to destroy undesirable hardwood growth and to release young loblolly pines already planted.

Artman accompanied Compton for a survey of the areas. Landowners who contracted for the work were T. T. Martin, G. P. Brannon, Dr. J. A. Mathews, Lewis McDearmon, of Appomattox. Also, Mrs. Lydia Shreve, Silver Spring, Md.; Dr. Parker Lee, Lynchburg; and A. C. Straw Brookneal.
